YOUTH MURDERED.

Charles Clark, aged 18, yesterday morning was found murdered on the banks of Timber creek, across the Roanoke, Va. border, in the township of Vinton. He was lying on his face, stripped of all clothes with the exception of undergarments and shoes. A knife was found some 75 yards from the body, and in another direction about 40 yards away, were his watch, suspenders, and a post card received from Mrs. Mary E. Jones, of Lynch-

It was through this that the body was idenlified. It was alleged that last Saturday Clark had assisted Mrs. Jones to leave her husband, whom the woman according to the report, suspected of knowing something of the death of Clark, but that he had been able to prove an alibi.

was arrested. It developed later that the two youths had assisted a family of women to move into the neighborhood in which the murder was committed, and suspicion is directed against the inmates of the house which is under surveillance. The cap and trousers worn by the young man were found yesterday under Glade Creek bridge, about 300 yards from where the body was found.

Yesterday was the liveliest betting day of the campaign on the New York Stock Exchange. Several brokers Will Aliff, a companion of Clark, came forth with Stimson money, which was taken at the prevailing odds of 2 to 1. It is estimated that nearly $60,000 was wagered. The largest bet recorded was one of $4,000 to $2,000. A bet of $2,500 to $10,000 was offered that New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Ohio will go democratic.
